Waiver of Liability:

Each participant (or consenting adult) is responsible to determine their respective physical limitations. Above please list any physical injuries or limitations or allergies or any other medical conditions you may have. I am aware that all tuition is non-refundable, and all merchandise is also non-refundable. Recital costumes and recital tickets are also non-refundable and are additional fees, which are collected separately. If you wish to cancel classes, you must call the dance studio 4 weeks before the 1st of the month in order to stop payment. We offer 33 lessons between September-June. When we are closed for the holidays, those classes are not counted into those 33 weeks and therefore do not have to be made up. If you miss a class, you have between Sept-June to make it up. There are no refunds. The last month – installment is an exit fee. It is non-refundable, but if you give us 4 weeks' notice on leaving, you can use this for your last month of classes. If tuition is not paid for 2 months, we have the right to cancel your enrollment, and your child will not be able to participate in class. Absences: All classes must be made up. No refunds or prorating for vacations etc. If a medical problem exists, we will need a doctor's note. We will allow siblings or parents to use the make-ups if necessary, If you register in the middle of the month. You will be pro-rated for that month by the class. The trial class is added into the monthly payment. There is a 10-month installment. I understand that when participating in dance, students may be photographed for print, video, or electronic imaging. I understand that the images may be used in promotional and fundraising materials, news releases, and other published formats, and will be the sole property of American Dance & Drama.
